WEDNESDAY EVENING APRIL 9 1902 MORE HARMful

Everybody who visits Rome must expect to be swindled and disappointed. There are many illusions, and you will be greatly disappointed when you approach them and they fade away. You will be swindled by shopkeepers, backafter a pause.

"Easy terms 'nough," said the mar-ketman briskly. "You get him by means ob a note o' hand." "A note o' hand," repeated Mr. Johnson, brightening up at once. "Do you mean I writes it out and pays some 'ime when"— But his hope in this glo-rious prospect was rudely shattered by the marketman.

"A note o' hand means in dis case, he said, with disheartening clearness, "dat you hands me a two dollar note, Mr. Johnson, and I hands you de turkey in response to dat note."

Not Quite Strong Enough.

While Mr. Hawtrey and his company were playing "The Gray Mare" to crowded houses in Edinburgh some years ago the care of the thunder-storm, the noise of the rain being made by the vigorous rattling of a few peas in a tin box, was intrusted to an old Scotsman known as Mac, who had been employed about the Theater Royal for many years and was no longer as energetic as he used to be.

On the first night the peas were not rattled with sufficient energy to please Mr. Hawtrey, who, rushing over to the astonished Mac, rattled him, box and peas together, exclaiming:
"Louder, man; louder! It's a storm

we want, not a Scotch mist!"

Solid Food For Scot's Intellect. The librarian of the Aberdeen Public library shows in his annual report what books readers call for. In one case a laborer's last thirty books from the library consisted of two books in science, one in philology, two in sociol ogy, three poetry, three philosophy, eleven theology and eight fiction. An-other remarkable case is that of an upholsterer, whose reading in a period of about two years consisted of one book in science, one in useful arts, two in history, five in biography and twentysix books of travel.-St. James Gazette.

Among the unconsciously grotesque tributes paid to Queen Victoria at the time of her death by the Indian press was this unique expression from a Hin-doo scribe: "Her majesty loved her subjects with the strong, maternal affec-tion which a cow feels for her off-

Of Sir William Harcourt Disraell once said in his affectedly cynical way, "He has the three essential qualifier tions of success in politics-a fine per son, a loud voice and no principles.

To this when it was repeated to him Harcourt rejoined, "Leaving out the first two qualifications, it might almost be applied to 'Dizzy' himself." Wife Not Bluffed.

Mrs. Subbubs-I see your husband goes out behind the stable to smoke. Don't you allow him to smoke in the house any more?

Mrs. Baklots-Oh, he can smoke anywhere he likes, but just now he is putting up a bluff that he has sworn off .-

will be swindled by shopkeepers, hackmen, peddlers and everybody that you have anything to do with, and the begrars will annoy you with their persistence like the fakirs and flower girls that follow you upon the street, but all this is a part of the experience of everybody who comes here, only such an noyances are greater in Rome than in most other places.

Hegging is a profession, as in every other Italian city, and the profits are much larger, because there are more strangers to appeal to. None but inexperienced beggars ever approach a native Roman, because they know it is useless, but they save all their energy and pathos for strangers particularly Americans and English, whom they follow with the greatest persistence. Chicago Herald.

Simple Transaction.

"I like de 'penrance o' dat turkey mighty well," said Mr. Johnson after a long and wistful study of the bird. The dusky marketman seemed strangely deaf.

"How could I—what arrangements could a pusson make dat wanted to buy dat turkey?" Afr. Johnson asked after a pause.
